CAMPUS BULLETIN

No. 13-90

November 9, 1990

Deaf Thought For The Week: To help build awareness of the realities of deafness and the lives of deaf people, I have enclosed statements and quotations for CB on a weekly basis. Here is the first one for this week!

Rachel Stone,
Principal

In his book, DEAF HERITAGE, Jack Gannon wrote, ".... I believe that the most effective 'cure' for deafness is not medicine not mechanical or electronic devices,... but understanding. And ironically, understanding is free. Before we can develop understanding, however, we must create awareness."

If you have any further questions, feel free to call me. Thanks.

Bettye Lane

A special thanks to all who donated clothing for the Mexican deaf children. We were able to take 12 full boxes (about 240 lbs. of clothes). The children were very grateful. Thank you for your generous support. If you can, please drop by the Spanish Class sometime to see the pictures of our trip!

Judy Reynolds

Congratulations to CAROL KELLER!!! She has been selected to be in the first edition of WHO'S WHO AMONG AMERICA's TEACHERS, 1990. We salute you Carol for a job well done.

FROM THE OFFICE OF DAVID REYNOLDS:

My family and I want to thank everyone from ISD and abroad for sending us sympathy cards and some plants for the death of my father, Berry B. Reynolds. His passing is a real loss for us, but, some of you have given us some thoughtful, caring support and this helps. There are so many people to thank and so many cards to write. I personally also want to thank the ISD Athletic Coaching Staff, the football team, and all my friends who attended the funeral or the wake. I do appreciate this, having you as my friend. Thanks.

David O. Reynolds
